ARMS: ARGENT AND SABLE. SHIELD: PARTED QUARTERLY PER FESS WAVY WITH A STAR IN THE CENTER POINT. IN THE DEXTER CHIEF, AN ATOMIC SYMBOL AND ARROW. IN THE SINISTER CHIEF, A SWAN. IN THE DEXTER BASE, A BUCKEYE LEAF. IN THE SINISTER BASE, AN OPEN BOOK AND TORCH. CREST: ON A TORSE OF THE COLORS, A BULLDOG HEAD PROPER. THE ATOMIC SYMBOL AND ARROW DENOTE THE HISTORY OF SWANTON PAST AND PRESENT. THE BUCKEYE LEAF IS SYMBOLIC OF THE STATE TREE. SWANTON DERIVED ITS NAME FROM SWAN CREEK. THE TORCH AND OPEN BOOK SYMBOLIZE EDUCATION. THE FESS WAVY SYMBOLIZES SWAN CREEK, WHICH WAS NAMED BY THE INDIANS. THE STAR REPRESENTS SWANTON AND ITS LOCATION IN THE CENTER OF LUCAS AND FULTON COUNTIES.
CREST ADOPTED 1966.

High School is many things,

Sports, Proms, Trips, and Clubs.

But most of all it is learning.

Therefore, we dedicate this annual to the Students of Swanton

High School.

B.G. Runnels, Executive Head of the Swanton Local School System received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the Defiance College, and his Master of Science in Education from Indiana University. Mr. Runnels spent part of this year on crutches because of a broken ankle.

Mr. Joseph Steele, Principal at Swanton received both his Bachelor and Masters degrees from Miami University. Last year he instituted the Modular system (no bells) and Honor Study Hall. Before coming here, he was Principal and coach at Milan, Ohio, for a number of years.

At the right is Mrs. Keeler, secretary to Mr. Runnels. Her duties are many and varied.

Mr. Bonam and Mrs. Carpenter

Nine seniors were honored at their last band banquet. The seniors were Paul Wines (hiding), Sandy Bowser, Tom Bradford, Linda Cain, Becky Doren, Marsha Hansen, Patsy Goldsmith, Kathy DeLong, and John Slaninka.

The Exchange Club recognized thirteen seniors, who were chosen by the Club as the most outstanding in their class. These seniors were Alan George, Sandy Bowser, Sue Quay, Dianne Town, Nancy Gillen, Kathy DeLong, and John Slaninka.
Standing are Todd Dunkle, Bob Czyzewski, Bill Green, Mick Bryan, and Chris Vasko.

This year Alan Minnich and Mr. Brandt attented the Science and Humanities Symposium at Columbus. Alan was honored by the Rotary Club for his outstanding knowledge and participation in the field of Science.

The Student Council was very active this year. Among its achievements are being active in Toledo Area Student Councils, adopting a crest for our school, approving a new constitution for the student council, and the Christmas Project, "Teenagers March for Toys." President Sandra Bowser did an outstanding job.

National Honor Society

The Swanton Chapter of the National Honor Society had its annual induction last fall. In order to be accepted into Honor Society as a sophomore you must have maintained a 3.75 academic average your freshman year, as a junior a 3.50 average, and as a senior a 3.15 average. This May the Honor Society were guests at the annual Swanton Education Association's banquet.

Library Club

This years Library Club purchased easels to be placed in the library to display art work from the art department. Library Club members also decorated the library at Christmas with a tree and various other decorations. They took a field trip to the Napoleon Branch Library, Delta Public Library, and Wauseon Public Library. The end of the year was highlighted by a shish-kabob party held at the home of Mrs. Dennis, advisor.

Art Club underwent a change in 1966. With the introduction of a full time art course, Art Club has transformed from an instrument of instruction to one of service and social activity. A trip to Olivet, Michigan, for High School Art Day and art exhibits were the major service projects rendered by the club. A memorable social activity was Christmas caroling while distributing extra large hand-rendered greeting cards.

The seniors of the Swanton High School squad find themselves divided into two camps: The Haves and the Have Nots.

The expressions upon the faces of our Have Nots show they are determined to capture the enemy's prize. With clutched fists eager for battle Dave Biehl, John Slaninka, Bob Ronau, Doug Keough, Tom Bradford, and Jeff Tolford give Paul Wade and John Yunker that air of confidence.

The Haves (or defensive team if you will) Paul Wade, John Yunker, Gary Ashenfelter, and Bill Green reflect this same air of strength and determination. Lucky for S.H.S. both the Haves and the Have Nots were on the same team--OURS!

Senior Class Trip

In the early morning hours on November 17, 1965, the seniors left for four days in Washington D.C. Most of the time spent in Washington was on tours. Some of the interesting places we visited were the Washington Monument, Jefferson Monument, Lincoln Memorial, Russian Embassy, Office of Printing and Engraving, the Islamic Mosque, and the Washington Cathedral. Places outside of Washington we visited were the Naval Academy, Gettysburg, and the Wax Museum.

Evenings there were different types of entertainment awaiting us. One evening we saw "The Agony and the Ecstacy." Another evening we saw the Broadway hit "Cactus Flower."

Besides being an educational experience, the trip was a time for fun. All in all it was a wonderful trip we will never forget.

"Pioneer Go Home" was a comedy about a hillbilly family that settled a piece of land which the government tried to claim as theirs, but Pops outwitted them. After some trouble with a group of gamblers, and the government men, the family was permitted to keep the land. Their ultimate reward was a surprise visit from the tax collector.

Pop Kwimper (Ross Thompson).

A coursage for helper, Mrs. O'Brien, is presented by Tom Snyder and Marilyn Hoffman.

Connie –
You are the nicest
future sister-in-law
anyone could have.
I hope your future
in nursing will be bright and sunny.
You'll make a good
